Kathy is a senior manager at Accenture, based out of the Accenture Cleveland office. She is a member of the Digital Health practice within Accenture's Health & Public Services organization. She supports Accenture's Open Innovation efforts in Health including the annual HealthTech Innovation Challenge, and supporting our ecosystem of relationships with healthcare start-ups. Kathy's professional career spans over 25 years in the health space and has been a part of Accenture since 2001. She has hands on experience helping multiple Health Plans, Providers and Nonprofits with strategic planning, call center & membership operations, systems planning and program management. She spent several years running Accenture's patient navigation offering. Prior to her consulting career, she spent several years in the Health Plan industry focused mainly in regulatory compliance, start-up Medicare/Medicaid programs, call center operations and provider contract implementation.

Kathy has been on the advisory board for the Carmella Rose Health Foundation in Cleveland Ohio for five years. Carmella Rose is a nonprofit that provides resources to help people access quality medical care and navigate the healthcare system in Northeast Ohio. Kathy has also been a Girl Scout troop leader for four years.

Kathy has her B.S. in Business/Health Administration from Bowling Green State University and a MBA specializing in Health Administration from Cleveland State University.
