

UE High School Changemaker Terms & Conditions

1. To participate in the contest, an individual must be a high school junior or senior, or the equivalent of that if in a country other than the United States.
2. Each entry must be submitted by an individual contestant (no team submissions allowed).
3. Contestants may only submit one project.
4. Each submission must meet the deadlines stated on the website.
5. Each submission must be the contestants' original work and must not plagiarize, infringe, misappropriate, or otherwise violate any intellectual property rights, privacy rights, or any other rights of any person or entity.
6. Project must be suitable for general audiences (i.e. no restricted information, contain no explicit language, crude/suggestive humor, drug innuendo, or mature/suggestive themes).
7. Contestants will not have the right to mark technical data in submissions as "Confidential" or "Proprietary."
8. Each contestant grants permission to use and make publicly available any submission provided or disclosed in connection with the competition.
9. Failing to meet submission requirements or other submission screenings will result in ineligibility for next stage or scholarship prizes.
